Fun Way to Draw Together

Short session drawing workshop by Angela Rossen

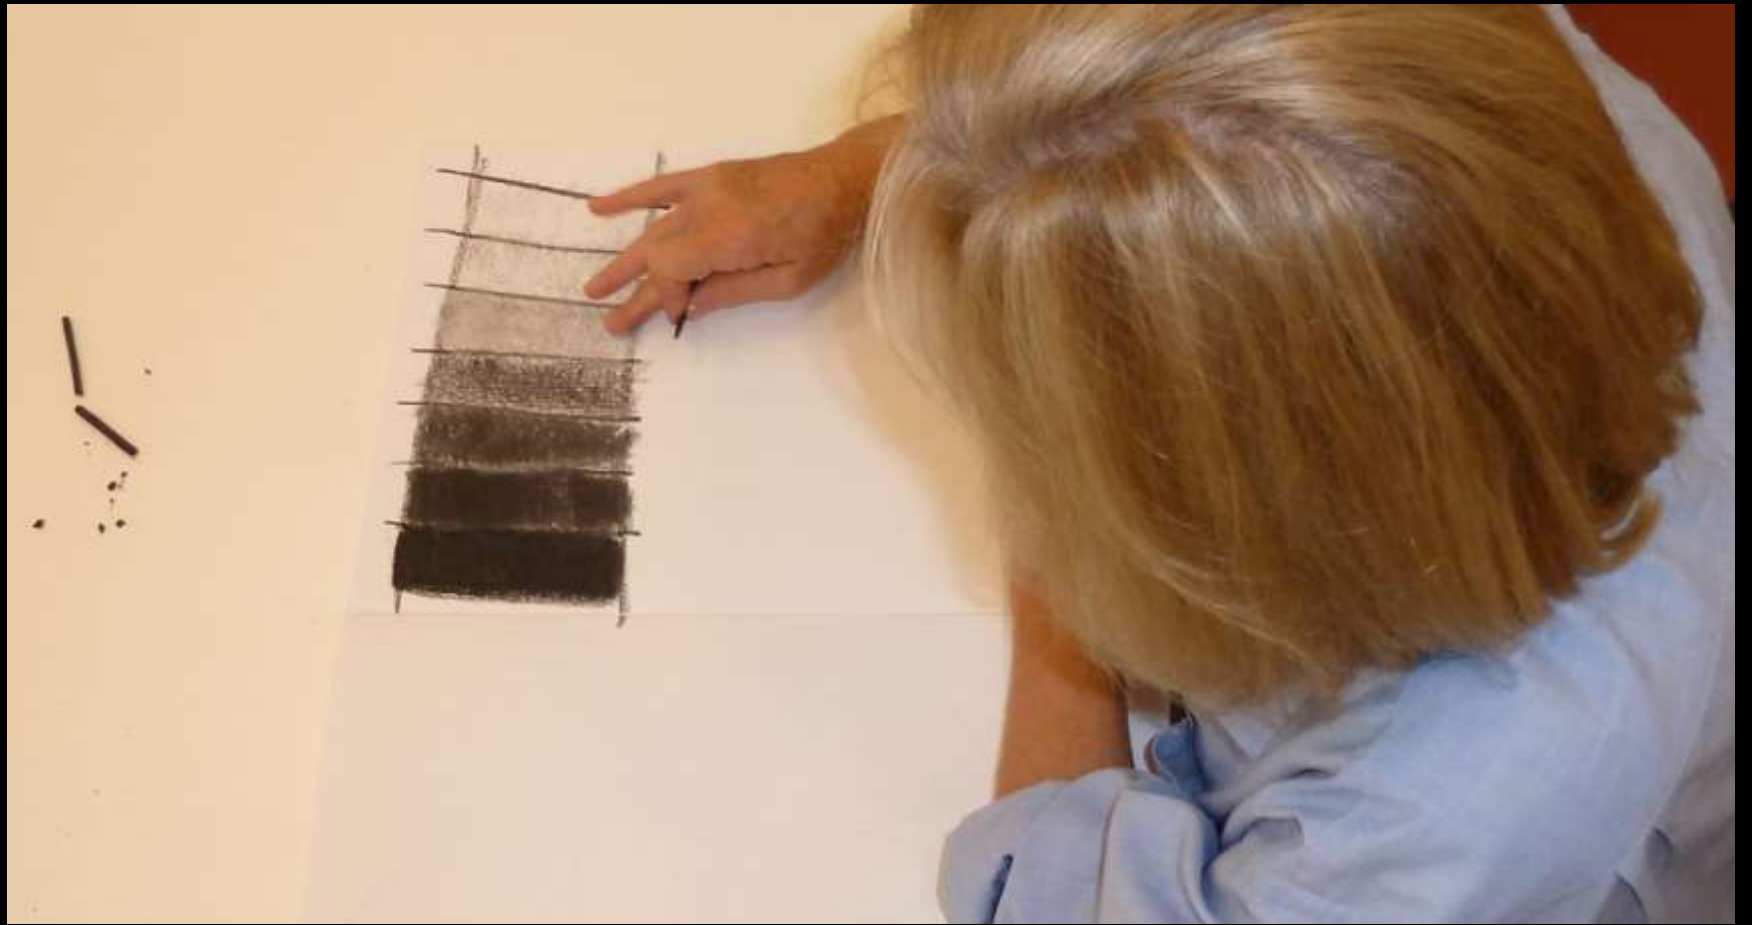

Duration	3 hours
For	10 to 20 participants
Requirements	Well lit room with tables and chairs that can be moved around.

The Fun Way To Draw Together is a half day workshop introduction to sketching for people who love to draw and for those who always wanted to but never got around to it.

Learn about using charcoal through a series of exercises and then plunge into the joy of drawing the model with a quick sketches based on lightening observation. This hilarious adventure into life drawing with fast and furious sketching will result in lots of light hearted depictions that may or may not be art.

Participants will come away with a basic understanding of cafe sketching, have a morning of fun which can change the way they look at the world.

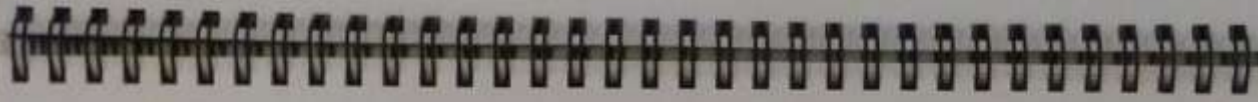

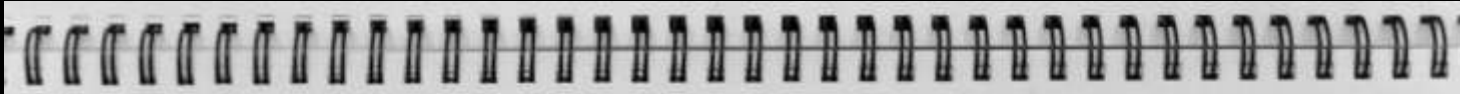

Quick sketches of moving subject.
